Real
Roses

Real Rose Hat Pins

It does not seem possible, yet it is true, that these Hat Pins are made out of live roses, and changed into metal by a secret process. This discovery is without doubt one of the most beautiful of the art of the day. They are the most beautiful of all Hat Pins. No two are alike. Made in finishes to conform to the prevailing fashions in millinery. Six sizes.

Everybody is talking about them. Don't fail to come in and see them. These are the genuine DELAMOTHE Real Rose Hat Pins.

WAS ARIZONA CROOK

Man Who Shot Capt.
Auble Lived at Tucson

WORKED AT CLUB

Exclusive Club Harbored Innocent Looking Lad
With Bad Record

Carl Sutherland, a clerk employed by the exclusive Old Pueblo Club of Tucson, was the man who shot to death Captain of Police Walter H.
Auble of the Los Angeles police department in Los Angeles on Wednesday and who later killed himself by swallowing cyanide of potassium when surrounded by a police posse.

Sutherland is said by the police to have been a professional burglar and blackmailer. It was during an attempt to arrest him that he fatally wounded Auble, the police officer dying two hours later.

The Tucson Citizen says: The deperate crook was well known in Tuc-son as a youth by the employees of the Old Pueblo Club and was well thought of by the clubmen themselves. Not for an instant was it suspected that the club building was harboring a desperate thief and criminal.

IS A COMEDY DRAMA

Full of Heart Interest And Not One Devoted to Shooting and Lynching.

In presenting "Texas" next Thursday night, September 17th, Manager Tupper desires to impress upon the public that the play is not of the wild west kind that is devoted to shooting and lynching, but is of the subdued nature with western coloring and is said to be a typical Texas drama full of heart interest and is presented by a company above the average. This company is especially engaged to open the Majestic Theatre in Los Angeles.

Every bit of scenery that can be placed on the stage of The Schieffelin will be used and, from a scenic point of view, the play is said to be superb. Seats go on sale Monday. See announcement at The Schieffelin tomorrow night.

SIDETRACKED BONDS

Disgraceful Plot Revealed to Divert Bisbee School Plans.

There is little doubt that when the taxpayers of Bisbee, and the parents of the school children in Bisbee, find out that the High School bonds were sidetracked for the benefit of that "delusion" under which a few real estate boomers are laboring, there will be considerable less enthusiasm for the county seat removal in that town of "ups and downs" than there is now.
If the deal made by the "powers that be" regarding the sidetracking of the Bisbee High School bonds wasn't about as raw a deal as was ever given to a set of taxpayers and parents of school children in Arizona, then we miss our first guess. When the facts of this gigantic fraud become known generally in Bisbee, we imagine that the 600 (?) names on that petition will somewhat fade; and, by the way, aren't those 600 names a long distance from 1187, with Lowell, Warren, Bakersfield, Douglas, and all the other towns of the county "dead against" this real estate boomers' game?

TERRITORIAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

Newsy Arizona Events
Taken In at a Glance

Tucson young men are organizing an athletic club with Professor Shindel, the wrestling champion, at the head.

The Boston Bloomers, the famous female aggregation of ball players, will play in Tucson Sunday.

It has been decided that the automobile race between Tucson and Phoenix will be run November 6.

Fourteen Chinese deportation cases will be heard by Judge Richey in Tuc-son at the term of court opening tomorrow.

The entire force of men employed at the Tucson shops of the Southern Pacific has gone back on the nine-hour schedule, after working short time for many months.

Charged with having entered a Southern Pacific box car and stolen goods, a hobo is being held in jail at Wilcox.

The first of a series of test cases growing out of the Clifton flood, against the Detroit Copper company, is on trial at Tucson, transferred from Graham county on a change of venue.

Yuma will hold a school bond election tomorrow to vote on a bond issue of $10,000 for the improvement of the schools and purchase of equipment.

Work has been begun on the new postoffice building at Yuma.

H. W. Campbell of Lincoln, Neb., the father of dry farming, is in the Sulphur Springs valley investigating the practicability of establishing an experimental farm.

The sixth furnace of the Calumet & Arizona smelter was blown in Monday.
It has a capacity of 500 tons per day and gives the smelter a greater possible output than ever before.

TIN MONEY OUT

New Kind of Counterfeiting Discovered In Arizona

COIN EASILY PASSES

Dollars Made of Tin Circulated In Territory
--Hard to Detect

Counterfeit dollars are circulating in Phoenix. The Gazette says that just how many it is not certain, but it is known that there are a few. Only one has so far found its way into the hands of the officers, but doubtless many a citizen will find, if he searches in his pocket, that he has a dollar with the date of 1879, ringing all right, but much lighter than the dollar Uncle Sam's mints turn out.

It is a very excellent imitation of the dollar of the realm and not a clerk in a hundred would refuse to change it. The metal used is tin, apparently almost pure. The stamp cannot be detected from the real thing and the coins ring like a silver dollar. It only differs from the legitimate money in its weight.

Suit No. 5429 was filed in the district court today. The suit is for foreclosure of mortgage 13-606 and is brought by E. J. Jacklin vs. Consuela Valdez; the property involved is N.
30 feet by 30 feet of lots 13, 14, 15, 16; and N. 85 feet by 30 feet of lots 17 and 18, and N. 55 feet by 45 feet of lot 19, block 15, Tombstone.

Miss Nellie Cashman, an aunt of Mr. M. J. Cunningham, is at present visiting in Bisbee. Miss Cashman is one of the early day pioneers of Cochise county and one of the unique characters in Arizona history. Miss Cashman was at one time the probress of the Russ house and is now interested in mining properties in Alaska, Nevada and Arizona. She will shortly visit Tombstone and renew her acquaintance with the old camp.

IRWIN-LOCKE.

On Wednesday last two popular Tombstonians were quietly married at Tucson, culminating a pretty romance that ended just as such romances always do when cupid has anything to do with the arrangements. The contracting parties were, Ed Irwin the popular engineer with the T. C. M. C., and Miss Emma A. Locke, the charming and agreeable young lady, who has been connected with the Gibson Abstract Co. for some time past. The couple planned a secret marriage and eloped to the ancient and honorable Pueblo where the service of the Methodist minister was invoked and the nuptial knot tied that made them one and inseparable. But county lines are no bar to such secrets. The facts leaked out--as such things do--and when the couple arrived home the blushing surprises were duly surprised. A charivari attended them and showers of congratulations and best wishes were accorded them. The prosperity joins in the general felicitations. May happiness ever attend the worthy couple.

Martin Costello returned from Bisbee last night, where he went to look after his real estate interests.

District Attorney Shelley returned to the county seat last evening from Bisbee, where he has been on business connected with his official position.

Supt. A. T. Schuster of the Tombstone G. S. & C. Co., has returned from a business visit to Bisbee.

Mrs. Fly returned from Los Angeles this morning, where she has been for the past month enjoying a vacation at the seashore.

John J. Pearce left yesterday for a prospecting trip in the Dragoon mountains.

President E. B. Gage of the T. C. M.
Co., returned last evening from a business trip to Tucson.

I. D. Machomich and wife returned home last evening from a six weeks' trip to California points.

W. T. Tupper, manager of The Schieffelin, went to Bisbee yesterday on a brief business trip.

John Gleason accompanied by his wife and son, John Jr., are Tombstone visitors today from Wilcox.

B. M. Holtry, organizer of the Improved Order of Red Men for Arizona and New Mexico, arrived in Tombstone last evening from Nogales, where he has been for the past month on business connected with this noble order. Mr. Holtry is not a stranger in Tombstone and has many friends here who gladly welcome him back to Queen City of the Southwest.

THE ACT WOULD BE FRAUDULENT

Latest Plan to Evade the Law On Court
House Matter

Word now comes from Bisbee that the big companies of the district propose to transfer their holdings in Cochise county to electors, so that their property may be assigned to the county seat petition. If the men who take title are onto their jobs they will not need to work any more during their natural lives, for the transaction will be for the purpose of evading the laws of the county, and therefore, fraudulent, and a court of equity would leave the parties in the condition in which it found them, and the grantees in the deeds above referred to could immediately take full charge of the whole works. If such a proposition is made seriously it proves that the agitators for the county seat removal are up against something hard, to multiply slang.

Mrs. R. H. Sneed who has been confined to her home since Tuesday with a severe cold, is again able to be at the store and attend to her duties.

Two stage lines between Tombstone, Gleason, Leadville and Courtland is an indication of the activity of that section.

The tests for the concentrator proposed to be installed at the mill of the T. C. M. Co. are proving most satisfactory. The company has large ore reserves ready for the concentrator and a long run awaits the installation of the new plant.

Miss Nina Harbeson, one of Tomb-stone's fair daughters, left yesterday for Tempe, where she will enter the Normal.

A new cement sidewalk is being laid in front of the First National Bank building. It is understood other property owners along Fifth street will continue the improvement later.

Miss E. Williamson returned today from her vacation visit to Eastern points and will be ready to assume her duties as teacher on Monday.

EARP'S NARROW ESCAPE

From Drowning in Waters of Sabi-nal Canyon

FELT PANGS OF DEATH

Tombstone's Superb Climate Will Soon Restore Him

To die and be brought back to life, realizing all that happened except during the few minutes that he was unconscious, has fallen to the lot of Harry Earp, Arizona agent for Collier's Weekly, who was recently rescued from drowning near Tucson.

With several others, Earp was ading in Sabinal canyon near Tucson, when he stepped into sixteen feet of water and sank to the bottom twice, remaining down the third time until rescued.

One young man on the bank saw him go under, and, fully dressed, three times he dove, but was unable to reach the drowning man.

Just in time to prevent death claiming Earp, George Brady, who had been swimming some fifty yards below, made two dives and finally caught Earp by the hair and pulled him to the surface.

"When I went down the first time," said Earp, who, though an athlete, can swim but little, "I realized that I was about to die unless rescued. When I went down the second time, I gave up hope, and there flashed through my mind a thousand different things."
"On going down the third time, I thought of my home in England, my parents, and all the scenes of my life stood out in bold relief. Somehow after I went down the last time I did not seem to care what happened, and I had no fear of death."

"To tell the truth, as I lay there on the bottom, I didn't seem to care whether I came to the surface or not.
My sense of danger and fright seemed to be numbed and my thoughts were all pleasant ones. I just gradually sank to sleep."

"When they brought me to, was when I suffered the most pain. Getting the water out of my lungs was agonizing. Being brought to life was much more painful than dying."

Earp was laid up for four days, and the first time he ventured out of his hotel in Tucson fell in a dead faint on the sidewalk. He came to Tombstone yesterday, and although still suffering from the effects of his terrible experience, will no doubt be in normal condition again after enjoying a few days' benefit of the wonderfully recu-perative qualities of Tombstone's superb climate, the equal of which is not to be found anywhere on earth.

THE COURTLAND CAMP

Col. J. W. Young Jr., of the Great Western Company, was in from Courtland today on a brief business visit today. Col. Young states that work is progressing satisfactorily on the Great Western group and the development proving most encouraging.
Courtland, Leadville and Gleason are important and growing suburbs of Tombstone, the county seat being the supply point for operations in that district.
